Ports of Call

Palermo: The great rock of Pellegrino is the landmark of the city of Palermo on the pretty island of Sicily. The city's blend of oriental refinement, gothic elegance and baroque magnificence reflects its colourful history as a capital of an Arab Emirate, the commercial hub of Europe and Asia under the Normans. As a break from the town's history we'll go shopping.

Rome: From here you can see the highlights of ancient Rome including the Colosseum, the Forum and the Capoline Museums. Not forgetting the Sistine Chapel and the Vatican.

Savona: From Savona you can very easily find the way to the Genoa Aquarium. It is close and unique encounter with the undersea world and its numerous inhabitants. The enormous oceanic tanks allow one to observe the marine world from two different perspectives: the first above the sea and the second offers an underwater view. The latter allows discovering the secret lives of sharks, dolphins, seals and an infinite variety of fish.

Barcelona: Experience the thrill of Barcelona with its vibrant atmosphere and stunning architecture, historical monuments and cultural traditions. Take a stroll along La Ramblas or visit other places of interest such as Barrio Gothic (Gothic quarter), The Villa Olympica and the Gaudi Designed Sagrada Familia Cathedral or climb Montjuic Hill for a superb panoramic view of the city.

Palma de Mallorca: Palma is a harmonious blend of ancient and modern. The beauty of the capital of the Balearic Islands reveals itself in its winding old town, where numerous business and cafes invite you to stay.

Overlooking the city is Belvedere Castle, dating back to the 14th century and offering the most beautiful views of the city and its port.

Tunis: It's a city of two cultures – European and Arabic. Discover the city and spend time shopping in the Souk or visit the ruins of the ancient city of Carthage and the village of Sidi Bou Said, with its traditional blue and white houses.

Price Includes: 8 day cruise on full board basis, port charges, fuel, surcharge and service charge.
