Ports of Call

Naples: Is not only picturesque, it's also one of the world's greatest cultural centers, filled with extraordinary works of art and architecture in the classical Greek and Roman styles. While you're in the area, you'll want to visit Pompeii, one of the most famous excavation sites in the world. Enter Pompeii by the sea gate and take a short walk to the hub of the city: the Forum. View the lavish temples and porticoes that lay beneath the ash for centuries.

Civitavecchia: The gateway to all the magnificence of the ancient city of Rome. Explore the Roman Forum, Trevi Fountain and other wonders of this ancient city. Picture the gladiators and their chariots on an interior tour of the Colosseum. Bask in the glory of Vatican City, with an inside look at St. Peter's Square, St. Peter's Basilica, the Vatican Museum and the magnificent Sistine Chapel.

Livorno: The Tuscan region of Italy, is ideally located for exploring some of the most beautiful cities in Italy, including Florence and Pisa. Florence is most noted as the birthplace of the Renaissance. Highlights include impressive piazzas and an incomparable 15th-century skyline - sure to offer charm and an unforgettable experience to any visitor.

Cannes: Is one of the most famous cities in the heart of the French Riviera, while Monte Carlo is situated in Monaco, on the Côte d'Azur of France. While multi-storey buildings are banned on the French part of the coast, high blocks abound in Monaco - there is nowhere else to build but upwards. Monte-Carlo provides you many discoveries, a highly cultured place with its many museums, a nice welcome with the most wealthy.

Barcelona: Located in the northeastern part of the country, 90 miles south of the French border. People from all around the world enjoy visiting this city for its individuality, cultural interest and physical beauty. When Hans Christian Andersen visited in 1862, he remarked that Barcelona was the "Paris of Spain." You're likely to agree. The city is a major cultural center with a fascinating history. Everywhere are archives, libraries, museums and buildings of interest - plus superb examples of modernist and Art Nouveau décor and architecture.

Price Includes: 8 day cruise on full board basis, port charges, fuel, surcharge and service charge.
